Let the Games Begin

Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it for a crown that will not last; but we do it to get a crown that will last forever. 1 Corinthians 9:24-25

Look at the numbered clues, determine the correct word, and write that word in the spiral puzzle. Each numbered square will begin a new word.

1. Sports competitions; baseball or football for example
2. A reward for victory in a competition or game
3. A competition of speed, as in running or riding
4. The entire physical part of a person
5. A circular decoration for the head, usually made of gold and jewels
6. One who competes in a race
